And it shall be our aim, by superior work and moderate charges, to cause you to take the same affection at leave of the public in the capacity of sign painter! We have felt all the time like we were throwing missiles at your folly and presumption over the shoulders of an estimal le gentleman; because has grammar, and that which you are in the habit of displaying on some of your signs, is not at all "harmonions." You "take feave of the public in the capacity of a writer;" had lad! You strike at a lie when he is down! Ha! tat! "Oh, an onnee of civit, good apotheacary, to sweeten my imagination." Charlie, have you get $500 all in one pile sure enough: but, most fertunate young man, keep it for the dull summer months, my boy, or return to the kind friend from whom you borrowed it for a mere sensational purpose. By the way, have you quasued us yet, as you threatened to certain parties that you con! and would do? We reekon not. Your abidity either as a writer or a painter to quash m's played, lie quiet and so will we. Respectfully,
